MEDIA ALERT

THE MONTCLAIR ART MUSEUM HOSTS STUDENTS FROM CHINA AS PART OF NEW STUDENT EXCHANGE PROGRAM

MONTCLAIR, NJ, July 21, 2010 — A student exchange program inspired by Montclair Mayor Jerry Fried and sponsored by Montclair High School is bringing 22 students and teachers from China to the Montclair Art Museum on Friday. The exchange is with Fuling and DeYang, two cities with approximately 90,000 students. During their visit, the students will stay with host families in the area. They are visiting the museum at 1:00 p.m. on Friday for a tour. Montclair will be the first stop on their visit to America and will be their “first impression” of the US. For more information, please contact Raechel Lutz, Media Coordinator, 973-259-5119 or at rlutz@montclairartmuseum.org.

About the Museum

The Montclair Art Museum, a notable, community-based institution with an international reputation, boasts a renowned collection of American and Native American art that uniquely highlights art making in the United States over the last three hundred years. The collection includes more than 12,000 objects: paintings, prints, original works on paper, photographs, and sculpture by American artists from the 18th century to the present, as well as traditional and contemporary Native American art and artifacts representing the cultural developments of peoples from all of the major American Indian regions. MAM’s Yard School of Art is the leading regional art school, offering a multitude of comprehensive courses for children, youth, adults, seniors, and professional artists.

The Montclair Art Museum is located at 3 South Mountain Avenue in Montclair, N.J. Information and directions are available on the Museum website, montclairartmuseum.org, or by calling 973-746-5555. MAM is open Wednesdays through Sundays, Noon – 5 p.m., and closed on Mondays, Tuesdays, and major holidays.

Museum admission is $12 for nonmember adults, $10 for senior citizens and students with I.D., and free for members and children under 12.

All Museum programs are made possible, in part, by the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts, and by funds from the National Endowment for the Arts, the Vance Wall Foundation, the Geraldine R. Dodge Foundation, and Museum Members.
